XENOZOIC TALES #13

by Mark Schultz

A TURNING POINT FOR JACK AND HANNAH!
A DANGEROUS NEW ALLY INTRODUCED!

Multi-award-winning comics artist Mark Schultz continues his tale of a time-mad future where man struggles to survive and dinosaurs live again! Hannah Dundee returns home to the land of Wassoon to a celebration in her honor, but treachery lurks in the shadows. Jack "Cadillac" Tenrec joins a hunting expedition with the cunning Lord Balclutha, the Wassoon's greatest hunter who shares an intimate past with Hannah. While Hannah and Jack's relationship hits an intense romantic pitch, much to the chagrin of the jealous Balclutha, clues hint at a deadly political plot with Jack pegged as an unknowing pawn. Also contains the eight-page story, "Boiling Point" by Steve Stiles. 32 page, B&W comic with full color covers. All ages. $2.95 ($4.15 Canada).

"Schultz is one of the top storytellers in modern comics."
—Al Williamson
